Weather Watch: As we all know, the weather has been extreme this winter. We take extra precautions this time of year to ensure that flowers arrive safe and fresh! They are perishable plants, however, and it is important that everyone take the necessary steps to ensure their safe arrival! If flowers are being sent to another address as a gift, please notify recipient of their eminent arrival. Boxes cannot be left at doorsteps in the cold weather or the flowers will freeze.

'I love you' in Hawaiian

'Aloha au iā 'oe'

Note the Hawaiian diacritical markings: the kahakō, or long-vowel marker over the “a” in “iā,” and the ‘okina, or glottal stop marker, in “‘oe.”

“Aloha,” in this context, means “love.” “Au,” often pronounced “vow” (but with only a very, very soft “v”), means “I” or “me.” “‘Oe” means “you.” “iā” is a dative article indicating the direction of the action.

Employee of the Month: Jonathan Coen

Jonathan is an incredible asset to the HT Team. Coming all the way from Glen Ellyn, Illinois, his favorite past time at Hana Tropicals is caring for the ducks and geese, for which we are eternally grateful. He enjoys snorkeling at Hana Bay, and loves the fuzzy heliconia the best.

When asked about his favorite part of life right now, he responded "I love the way time passes here, simultaneously standing still and flying by at the same time. Being able to ride the Hana Highway in beds of trucks with the farm family is pretty great as well."

Thank you for all your hard work Jonathan!
